155,000,000 GENTILE AMERICANS EAT KOSHER FOODS UNDER FORCED JEWISH MONOPOLY

The United States of America in all respects has been regarded as a Christian country throughout the years. It was discovered by Christians, founded on Christian principles; and today the majority of the people are of the Christian faith. The population of the U. S. is approximately 160,000,000. Of this figure, the "Jews" tell us there are 5,000,000 of their "Chosen Race." (The figure 12,000,000 would be more accurate, but for the purpose of this article, we will use their own figures.)

If the above is correct, and there is no doubt America is a Christian nation, then why is it the lives and destinies of these millions of Christians are molded and guided by a minority of anti-Christians who call themselves "Jews"? For instance, why is it many of the major food companies in America must have the Kosher seal of approval on their products? What are the reasons for this nation-wide approval of "Jewish" Talmudic food for the Christians to consume?

There are signs and symbols used on foods, meats, poultry, soaps and other products to notify their own the items marked are approved for them to use. None of these marks or symbols are made known to the Christian (or "dumb guy"). However, a few of these are the U (Union of Orthodox Rabbis), a dot (.), and the letter "K." The writer has seen only the "U" and dot although there are many personal signs of Rabbis seen in "Jewish" publications. So when you see these signs you know you are eating Kosher foods or using Kosher products, and supporting the Marxist Invisible Government in controlling American industries.

What does "Kosher" mean? One dictionary gives us the following definition: "Jewish term for what is clean in conformity with the laws of the Talmud. The word is applied to both food and utensils in which it is prepared. Kosher meat is that of a beast slaughtered by a licensed butcher under the ritual of the Mosaic law." In other words the "Jewish" supervisors of our foods receive weekly salaries from major manufacturers and see to it the foods are "clean in conformity with the laws of the Talmud" and not necessarily clean in conformity with what the Christians consider to be such. We wonder how many readers know what the Talmud really is! Informed people know it is the most vulgar set of books ever written. If the Talmudic laws govern the manufacturing of foods for Christians, then there is much room for apprehension on the part of the Christian population of America.

On March 18th before the Daughters of American Revolution convention in Trenton, N. J., Mrs. Henry D. Strack revealed the meaning of the mysterious markings of U, K and the dot. What happened to Mrs. Strack for bringing this information to the attention of the public makes interesting reading. In short, they crucified her.

In New York City there are 67 inspectors from the Board of Health, whose salaries are paid by the taxpayers, devoting their time exclusively to inspecting factories,

PIERRE MENDES-FRANCE, Premier of France

The Wisconsin Jewish Chronicle, June 25, 1954 states Mendes was born in Paris of wealthy Jewish parents. In making his bid for Premier, Mendes made the promise to get peace in Indochina or quit in thirty days (by July 20). Recently the Mendes Invisible Government turned over to the Communists two thirds of Indochina including the best cities and the rice bowl which also supplies half of Japan's rice supply.

Twelve million people thrown to the Communists for rape and murder. This is an example of what one Jew in a key spot can do to Christianity.

More Tolerance And Brotherhood In Holy Land

Below we reprint excerpts from an article which appeared in Time Magazine, Oct. 26, 1953.

The sullen enmity between infant Israel and its Arab neighbors, long acknowledged and long passed over by Western diplomacy, erupted last week with a violence that could no longer be ignored.

At 9:30 one night, most of the people were just going to bed in the Jordanian village of Kibya, 20 miles northwest of Jerusalem, and a mile and a half beyond the Israeli frontier. A light still burned in the village coffeehouse, where a few late gossipers were preparing to depart; on this quiet night, as usual, everyone put his trust in the U. N. "truce" and 30 skimpily armed Jordanian national guardsmen. Suddenly, Israeli artillery, previously zeroed onto target, opened up, and a 600-man battalion of uniformed Israeli regulars swept across the border to encircle the village. For the next 2½ hours the town shuddered under shell bursts and small-arms fire, villagers, screaming and milling, rushed out to the surrounding fields and olive groves.

Then the guardsmen's ammo (25 rounds per man) gave out, and the Israelis moved into Kibya with rifle and Sten guns. They shot every man, woman and child they could find, then turned their fire on the cattle. After that, they dynamited 42 houses, a school and a mosque. The cries of the dying could be heard amid the explosions. The villagers, huddled in the grass, could see Israeli soldiers slouching in the doorways of their homes, smoking and joking, their young faces illuminated by the flames. By 3 A. M., the Israelis' work was done, and they leisurely withdrew.

Sixty-six died that night, eleven from one family, ten of another. It was the bloodiest night of border warfare since the 1949 armistice —

Katzin To Head UN Personnel

The Wisconsin Jewish Chronicle, May 14, 1954, reported that Col. Alfred G. Katzin, a South African Jew, has been named to head the United Nations personnel set-up. In this capacity, Col. Katzin will be in charge of the UN's 4,000 international servants. The importance of such a post cannot be overemphasized. One can always hope that perhaps the Colonel will discharge his duties impartially, keeping in mind our country's welfare and the preservation of our form of government. However, to those who are aware of the avowed plans pertaining to and leading up to the establishment of a Super Government under the direction of "the chosen people", such a possibility seems rather remote. In light of the plans of those who would destroy Christianity, an appointment such as this is dangerously significant and a definite asset to those Jews who have dedicated themselves to the final overthrow of all existing governments.

Alfred G. Katzin

In another item, in the same issue, the Wisconsin Jewish Chronicle outlined Col. Katzin's role in Korea, and told of his position as deputy director general of UNRRA. According to the article, next to Benjamin Cohen, the Assistant Secretary General in charge of the Department of Public Information, Katzin is probably the most prominent Jewish personality in the United Nations Secretariat. Col. Katzin while handling the U. N. relations in Korea during the late dreadful affair was in position where he knew of troop movements, shipments of arms and all military secrets. It is said that the Communists knew more of our plans than our U. S. army dairies, food packaging plants and the like that market products bearing the Kosher symbol. All the city requires is that there is a Rabbi on the premises when the inspectors appear on the scene. Although the whole set-up is rather hushed-up and confused, it seems there is a Union of Rabbis which supplies the "man-power," and the weekly salary, which is approximately $125 per week, is paid by the taxpayer.

Kosher means "clean." One of the leading wines for general consumption is advertised as having a "kosher flavor" — whatever that means! The Pure Food and Drug Laws, Laws of Sanitation, etc., which control those concerned with the preparation and packaging of food products are apparently not capable to assure the cleanliness of a product. No one knows exactly what is done, if anything, to make such products acceptable. One might even wonder if the Rabbi's presence is solely to "bless" (or whatever it is he does) soap powders, instant coffees, and such.

What sort of pressure is exerted on those Christian-owned and operated industries to force them to avail themselves of the "services" of the Rabbi? It cannot be solely for the purpose of insuring the purchase of their products by the Jewish population. The percentage of Jews among the consumers is too small to attach that great an importance to it. Is it not more likely that the tremendous control exerted by this minority in other channels would be sufficient to make such an omission on the part of the company "inadvisable"?

If the Jewish religion requires a particular "blessing" on these products, so be it. However, it does seem to be a definite encroachment on the Gentile majority to be forced to buy (and there are comparatively few products that do not carry the Kosher sign) that which has been given the salaried approval of the Union of Rabbis. It is even more of an insult in view of the fact that such signs are carefully concealed — obviously not for "general publication." We wonder how acceptable it would be if these same products should suddenly appear on the market bearing a "P" signifying the religious approval of the Protestant Church or a "C" implying Catholic approbation.

It is alarming to what extent the self-styled Jews are shaping our opinions and our way of life. The American Jewish Committee boasts in a confidential report that all of the addresses delivered by the National Chaplain of the American Legion during 1950-1 were written by them. Under date of April 10, 1954, the National Federation of Reform Synagogues sent out a letter to all Protestant ministers in New York stating they had made arrangements with the Protestant Council of Churches for joint meetings with the Protestants to be held in synagogues where the subjects of the talks would be the Jewish background of Christianity. Now it appears this small minority is forcing Christians to eat food that has been prepared under the supervision of a Rabbi. On numerous instances the Jews have stated they would fully Judaize the Christians. The Jewish writer, Chaim Lieberman, in his book "The Christianity of Sholem Asch" states that Christian moderns are "slowly but surely yielding to the Jewish translation of the bible and abandoning "the notion that their savior is virgin born."

"Tolerance" Propaganda

By FRANK BRITTON
 Republished from AMERICAN NATIONALIST Inglewood, Calif.

Perhaps the most effective weapon at the disposal of Jewish nationalists in their campaign to negate Christian-American culture and civilization is "tolerance" and "brotherhood" propaganda. Because such propaganda appeals most strongly to the religiously inclined person, and to people of high moral character generally, its effect has been almost overpowering among the better classes of American society. The dream of a universal brotherhood of men is, after all, age-old, and finds expression in the philosophy of every major civilization. The concept of tolerance and amity and brotherhood among men is essentially a noble one. Why, then, the objection to the current "tolerance" campaign being waged by American Jewry?

To begin with, the present campaign might be compared to the pre-war agitation for international disarmament, which also appealed strongly to people with high moral convictions. The ideal of international disarmament is also a fine one, and few will oppose it on principle alone. It should be kept in mind, however, that no scheme for universal disarmament will work unless EVERY nation is willing to disarm. It is sheer criminal folly for any single nation to disarm while other nations are actually in the process of rearming.

A Letter To Flanders

Dear Senator Flanders:

The same issue of the Houston Chronicle carrying your attack on Senator Joe McCarthy also carried the attached article.

Read it carefully and note that it was perpetrated by a Known Communist who was deported from the United States.

The entire April issue of the left-wing magazine "Progressive" was devoted to smearing McCarthy.

The "Daily Worker", official newspaper of the Communist Party, constantly attacks McCarthy.

Every Communist in America hates McCarthy and is out to "get" him. You must know this is true.

And yet you line up with that gang!

As between you and Joe, which would an honest umpire rule was aiding the Communists?

I wish you, in a moment of solitude, would consider the above, then let your conscience honestly speak for you.

You, Senator Flanders, should be on the side of America with Joe McCarthy. If you will recognize who his enemies are and what they are doing, I am sure you will apologize to the American people for your attack on McCarthy.

Refusal by you to do so would be strong evidence you are either hopelessly stupid or that you knew you were lying when you made those statements.

Yours truly,

E. M. BIGGERS

the armistice that won Dr. Ralph Bunche the Nobel Peace Prize, but brought no peace.

Stern Condemnation. Next morning in London the news stirred the Big Three foreign ministers. Three identical messages went off to the U. N. requesting an "urgent meeting" of the Security Council, which took up the matter this week, and unanimously invited Denmark's Major General Vagn Bennike, Chief Truce Supervisor, to New York to report. The U.N.'s Mixed Armistice Commission, chief enforcement agency of the truce, which has only the power to urge and deplore, deplored the Israeli act as "cold-blooded murder." Britain, which stands behind the desert state of Jordan, wired its "distress" and "horror" in an angry message to Israel's government.

"Lost Patience." The Western protests found Israel defiant and unapologetic. Extras reporting the Kibya massacre were soon sold out. "When I heard the news, my heart swelled with pride," said one Israeli. In the Mosaic tradition of an eye for an eye, the Israelis produced statistics to show that since May, 1950, 421 Israelis had been killed or wounded by Jordan marauders. Just that week, a cowherd had been murdered, a mother and her children blown to bits. The Israeli U.N. delegation commented that it wished the Big Three "would show the same compunction about Israeli dead." But no one accused the Arabs of so bloody a massacre as the night at Kibya. The Israeli Foreign Office, contrary to its usual custom, did not attempt to deny the attack; not until four days later did a spokesman claim with straight face that the soldiers involved were not regulars but Allied veterans of World War II, now farming on the frontier, who had "lost patience." In Jerusalem the government announced that it welcomed U.N. intervention.

To survive, Israel needs peace. Last week in its defiance of the U.N. and in the slaughter of Kibya, Israel made peace harder than ever to attain.

officers. As a member of the UN, Katzin was sent, at a crucial stage of the war, to study and report on the situation. It hardly seems fair to deem the Korean War a United Nations affair inasmuch as more than 70% of the money used to finance it was in the form of American dollars, and 90% of the troops were American. What has to happen before the people of this country become aware, to the point of action, of the extreme dangers facing all of us?
